4. PROCEDURE FOR ISSUE AND SUBSEQUENT REVISIONS:

4.1. when a CAR is issued, the first page indicates the date of issue along with the date of its effectivity. Subsequent pages indicate the date of issue.

4.2. Whenever a change is effected to the relevant CAR, it will be termed as revision. The revision number along with date of revision and effective date of revised CAR will be indicated on the first page of the CAR and on such pages, which are affected by the revision. Pages which are not affected by the revision will contain initial date of issue only. All revisions to the CAR will be indicated by a sideline on the left side of the affected pages indicating the change/ revision to the CAR.

Note: The earlier issues of the CAR, which include amendment, shall be read as Revision.

4.3. Major changes to the CAR shall also be treated as revision.

4.4. Whenever a new CAR or significant revision to the existing CAR is proposed to be issued, the draft CAR/proposed revision may be circulated to the concerned operators/regional offices for their comments. Upon receipt of comments, these will be analysed and if found suitable will be incorporated in the proposed CAR before promulgation. If required, DGCA may arrange meetings with the operators for discussions on the draft CAR before finalisation.

4.5. Every revision will be accompanied by a Revision Notice which would indicate the pages affected, and the reason for the revision. This Revision Notice should be filed along with the affected CAR in the folder.

4.6. Whenever there is a major change/ revision, the Revision Notice will indicate that the CAR is revised in its entirety and all the pages of the CAR issued earlier shall be discarded.

5. The operators/owners/organisations shall be provided with the checklist to the CAR whenever any new CAR/revision to the CAR is issued. It shall be the responsibility of the owner/operator/organisation to procure the copy of the CAR/revision from the publisher and ensure compliance with the requirements contained therein.

6. The CARs and their revisions may be obtained from The English Book Store, 17-L , Connaught Circus, New Delhi- 110001 (India).
